The Carolina Blue Dots are ridin' high on the charts with "Shaggin' With My Baby" and "Those Summer Days."

Meanwhile, there are more tunes to celebrate on their Those Summer Days CD.

As if that weren't enough they're in the studio finishing up the songs for their next CD.

The Carolina Blue Dots also appreciate all the entries in their contest to add one more verse to their Top 5 song (August 15th) "Shaggin' With My Baby."

Winner of a fine bottle of win and Carolina Blue Dots memorabilia was Gerry Jennings from Aiken, SC. Hear the additional verse with Fessa' Hook afternoons, Monday thru Friday on www.jukinoldies.com ***

A Tribute to DJ, Singer, Drummer, Philanthropist, M.C. Gary Bass

Ray Scott and Gary Bass

RAY SCOTT SAID IT FOR EVERYONE: My heart is so broken that I don't even know where to begin. In 1998 I was just an ordinary AM radio and mobile DJ in Monroe, N.C. when I received a call from Gary Bass inviting me to play at Spring SOS at Fat Harold's Beach Club. This changed my beach music life forever. If it hadn't been for Gary I would have never worked at Fat Harold's or 94.9 the Surf.

In 2004 I needed a place to live for a few months and Gary gave me a key to his house and told me to stay as long as I needed to. He wouldn't let me pay him a thing.

An Oasis in the Beach Music Desert

Terri Gore & Fessa' John Hook @ Sallywag's

I am proud to say that I worked on Gary's DJ house staff at Fat Harold's for eighteen years. Gary was a mentor and a great friend. I am so honored to have had Gary speak on my behalf for my induction in both The Beach Music DJ Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Carolina Beach Music Awards Hall of Fame in 2019.

I can truly say I owe a lot of my success in Beach Music to Gary Bass.

Prayers from Charlene and I to Robin and the Family. Rest In Peace my friend, Love you like a brother !!! ***

Ray Scott is the leader of Riptide Radio which launched on the Internet in May 2017.

It's been quite a journey from WMAP in Monroe,, NC where he began.

Gary called Ray in 1998 offering to book him at Fat Harold's if he ever moved to the Beach. Ray wasn't long in accepting the offer play his first gig at Harold's during the 1998 S.O.S. Spring Safari. (Ray played at Fat Harold's until 2016, explaining, "I basically stopped because of those [late] 2 a.m. nights.")

In January 2004 Ray was hired at the 94.9 The Surf to M.C. the afternoon drive show, staying there until January 2011 when he left to launch YourBeachMusic.com on the net in September 2011. YourBeachMusic.com was headquartered in studios at First Avenue North in North Myrtle Beach.

In May 2017, Ray launched Riptide Radio with fellow DJs Johnny B and John Hall.

Ray has DJ'd on several cruises, two with Gary Bass, also the Making Waves Cruise with the Craig Woolard Band.

As for his outlook on the future of Beach Music, Ray has this to say, "I hope that after the pandemic, Beach Music will thrive again."

"We've had good music this year...I think the Party For A Lifetime Tribute CD to Steve Hardy....a tremendous job by the artists."

"[There are lots of] new female artists out now, and a lot of our newer folks are writing their own material."

"In the Shag world there's a difference between Shag and Beach Music. Those that can do the 1-2-3 are Shag...."

Ray laughed as we finished our interview, "Gary would always laugh about 1989, 'Ray, if it hadn't been for Bill Pinkney and his Original Drifters Move Across the River, I would have had the number one song for the year with Soothe Me."

"Soothe Me" has been packing the dance floors for 31 years, as will Gary's legacy for years to come. ***

How Gary Bass Started

1969 THE MYSTICS, Winnsboro, SC (1965-1969): l2r: Drennan Jones, Ron Gantt, Chip Sims, Gary Bass (drums), Clyde Sanders, Tim Boulware--MZI Auditorium Winnsboro

Gary Bass's ability to mentor Ray Scott is grounded along a path of music and entertainment which began with the Mystics from Winnsboro, SC where he became the heartbeat (drumbeat) of the band.

Following the Mystics, Gary's next tenure ca the 70s, was with the Crossfire band where he supplied vocals as well as drums.

In 1985 Fat Harold's in Ocean Drive beckoned and Gary joined under the wing of his mentor Richard Nixon, a long-time highly respected DJ on the Grand Strand. Just in time for Gary. S.O.S. launched its first 're-union' weekend in September 1980. That was planned to be the one and only 'Society of Stranders' get-together, but we all know now it was an idea which launched a new era in celebration of the Shag and old and new friendships. To facilitate the demand for old, sometimes long-lost Shag songs, and those that were carving the path into a new era, the DJ selection process was a demanding one. Gary fit right in.

CROSSFIRE: l2r: Bill Porter guitar, Bill Traylor bass, Jimmy Arrington keyboards, Jimmy Gladden vocals, Gary

recording and performing artist. His first release was “Put It Where You Want It,” an interesting choice. Most folks had never heard it, but it has a long pedigree; some of which I include here for those who are always interested in where things come from.

A Tribute to DJ, Singer, Drummer, Philanthropist, M.C. Gary Bass

Gary Bass and Lulu Quick-Rigsby, General Manager of Fat Harold's

Joe Sample wrote and recorded the 5:31 original in 1971. Southern Fried weighed in with a 3:10 version in '72 while the Crusaders released a 5:27 recording that year. Things heated up even more in '73 with a 2:38 version by Nino Tempo and April Stevens (the first vocal version), the Crusaders with a shortened 2:50 version, and the Average White Band (AWB) produced two versions, 4:37 and 5:27 that year. AWB released yet another, at 5:09, in 1975.

In 2005 Eric Clapton, Joe Sample, David Sanborn, Steve Gadd, and Marcus Miller's 6:00 + version from the 1997 Montreux Jazz Festival was released. As recently as 2014 Annika Chambers and the Houston All Stars released their 4:32 version.

Gary drew from several great players for his initial release in 1986. His recording career continued for another 33 years:
